

Cedarloo church of Christ

We gladly welcome you to our congregation, trusting that if you are seeking Christ you will find Him here. If sorrowing you have received comfort, if troubled in spirit you gained the blessing of peace, if discouraged you rejoiced in hope, if friendless you found companionship and Christian love. That these and other blessings are yours. This is our prayer. Please feel free to use our nursery as needed, at the back of the auditorium near the exit door. We hope you will come again often. You are always welcome!

Rules For the Holiday Season
By Lance Cordle

As we enter the “core” of the holiday season, please allow me to remind us all of some things we can do to make and keep it a joyous time for us all:

Be careful about your spending. Stick to a budget. Life does not consist in the quantity or price of things (see Luke 12:15).

Do something for others, whether it is with a group or on your own, give a little extra to help someone in need. In your plans (parties, etc.), try to include those who may not have plans of their own (widows, singles, couples who live far away from family, etc.).

Face your negative feelings. If you are sad about a loved who is no longer alive, think about them and face the sadness, but end your contemplation with a reflection of the precious memories and the positive influence of that person on your life.

Use part of you time to take personal inventory and set goals for the coming year. Try to avoid too much self-criticism, but be realistic in your evaluation. Prioritize and set some attainable goals (not too many at once) for yourself in the new year.

Enjoy the happy moments. Try to truly savor the times of celebration. They will serve you well as sweet memories in the years to come.
